

EQUAL PAY RALLY

Last December, the AMWU with the ACTU lodged applications under the new equal remuneration provisions. These applications represented the next step in the fight for equal pay.

This Friday, the Industrial Relations Commission will determine whether the applications should be postponed for three months. This will give the Federal Coalition time to repeal the provisions.

At 9.30am on Friday 17 May 1996
At the Australian Industrial Relations Commission
80 William Street East Sydney

Come and tell the Commission and the Coalition that continued pay discrimination against women will not be tolerated!
