

1174/3/65

THE PIONEER PLAYERS announce the production of a new and original comedy, in four acts,

A HAPPY FAMILY

By Vance Palmer.

The first performance of the play will be given on Thursday evening, 21st September, at the TEMPERANCE HALL, Russell Street.

The last performance of JOHN BLAKE will take place on Thursday evening, 14th September.

Prices: 4/4 (reserved), 2/2, and 1/1. Box plan at Glen's.

The Pioneer Players are giving regular Thursday evening performances at the Temperance Hall. Their object is to provide a centre where genuine works of Australian drama may be seen. It is the only theatre of its kind in Australia, for the Pioneer Players differ from the repertory societies, in that they stage only new and original works, instead of being content with plays already produced abroad. They hope in time to create an interest in Australian drama similar to that already created in Australian painting and literature.